

Ryann H. Beck

Milwaukee Office
p 414.271.7590
e rbeck@andruslaw.com

Ryann H. Beck is a registered patent attorney and non-equity partner at Andrus Intellectual Property Law.

Ryann has a diverse range of experience relating to intellectual property matters, including domestic and international patent and trademark prosecution, licensing, and enforcement.

Ryann regularly counsels clients regarding patentability, patent validity, and patent infringement, and works on related opinion matters. She has experience prosecuting patents relating to a variety of technology areas, including computer software, electrical and electronic circuits and systems, medical devices, medical patient monitoring technologies, as well as mechanical devices.

In addition, Ryann represents clients in proceedings before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, including in patent post-grant proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) and trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB). In addition, Ryann counsels clients through various types of IP-related contract negotiations, including settlement agreements, licenses, co-existence agreements, and the like.

Education and Engineering Experience

Ryann joined the firm in July 2010 after receiving her juris doctor degree from Marquette University Law School (cum laude). While at Marquette, Ryann was a member of the Intellectual Property Law Review and the Intellectual Property Moot Court Team. Ryann is the author of a law review

Andrus Intellectual Property Law, LLP

p 414.271.7590 • f 414.271.5770 • andruslaw.com

Main Office
100 East Wisconsin Avenue, Suite 1100
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202

200 River Place, Suite 200
Monona, Wisconsin 53716

44 Merrimac Street, Suite 207
Newburyport, Massachusetts 01950

Ryann H. Beck

article regarding intellectual property issues facing farmers, titled “Farmers’ Rights and Open Source Licensing,” which published in the Spring 2011 edition of the Arizona Journal of Environmental Law and Policy.

Prior to attending law school, Ryann earned a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from The Georgia Institute of Technology (2003). As an engineer, Ryann worked for over four years in the area of bio-signal processing, first as an intern at NASA Johnson Space Center and then as a neural signal analyst at Impulse Monitoring, Inc.

Honors and Admissions

Ryann was selected for inclusion in Thomson Reuters' 2015, 2016 and 2017 Super Lawyers - Rising Stars list in the field of intellectual property law.

Bar and Court Admissions:

- Supreme Court of Wisconsin
- U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit
- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

Memberships:

- American Bar Association
- Wisconsin and Milwaukee Bar Associations
- Wisconsin Intellectual Property Law Association
- International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (AIPPI)

Community Involvement

Ryann is currently an adjunct professor of law at Marquette University Law School, where she teaches a course on intellectual property research, and has coached several Moot Court teams at Marquette. Ryann volunteers with the College and Career Readiness Program at a local non-profit organization, PEARLS for Teen Girls, Inc., and serves as a mentor to local-area high school students interested in pursuing a career in the law through the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association Mentorship Program.